DOCUMENTARY/DRAMA/ COMMERCIALS

A Royal Television Award winning Sound Recordist. He is a well-travelled, confident, positive and relaxed member of any crew. He has Documentary, Drama, Commercial and Corporate experience with all kinds of productions all over the world. As with any good soundie, he has the technical ability and versatility to adapt fast to changing environments. He reads situations well and can help create the atmosphere and relationships required for the contributors, artists or clients to relax. He is comfortable with challenges, mentally and physically, and can be used as a pro-active member of the team on the road, whether it is helping with lighting, rigging mini cams on a fast moving documentary or joining the team lug boxes from location to location for the next scene on a Drama. He gets involved and has a good sense of humour and enjoys doing what he is good at. With an extensive range of both Documentary & Drama equipment at his disposal, he is able to offer a professional & friendly solution to all your location recording requirements.
